ROAD CLOSED—The above photograph shows the road leading to the residences of Mr. and Mrs. Erland Scribner, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hale and Harold Fleming, from Route 2, west of West Bethel. When the picture was taken Wednesday afternoon it appeared that the ice level had receded somewhat from its previous high point. It was estimated that about six inches of water covered the ice this Thursday forenoon, as the water rose again. The road has been closed to vehicular traffic since last week end.

The Pleasant River flooding is caused by an ice jam in the Androscoggin River. Numerous ice jams were reported along the river's course the first of this week.

School Board Accepts 6.1% Bid To Provide '70 Temporary Funds --Will Discuss Budget Monday

The Board of Directors of School Administrative District No. 44 voted Monday evening to accept the bid of Maine National Bank to provide temporary operational funds during 1970 at an interest rate of 6.1%. The money is to be taken as needed. One of the requirements is that the District's checking account be established at the Maine National Bank.

Casco Bank and Trust Co. could only quote for specific loans as funds would be required through the year, and the bid of the Canal National Bank was 7.25%.

In other action at the meeting held at Telstar Regional High School approved the nomination of Timothy Carter to teach grades 5 and 6 at Crescent Park School in Bethel for the remainder of the 1969-70 school year. Mr. Carter is a graduate of Gould Academy and has received his B. S. degree from the University of Maine. Mr. Carter has nine credit hours at U. of M. Graduate School. This is his initial teaching position. Married with two children, he and his wife reside on the Middle Intervale Road in Bethel.

It was the decision of the board to raise insurance coverage of the district's elementary schools to $702,176. It was thought that this action would increase premium cost in that area by about $1,500.

In the absence of an estimate of cost, it was decided to table action on insuring hand instruments, audio-visual equipment and athletic equipment. It was also suggested that figures be obtained for glass coverage on Telstar, and increased comprehensive commercial blanket bond coverage from $5,000 to $10,000.

The board granted their final approval of the policy pertaining to pregnancies. Preliminary approval of this policy was granted at the regular meeting on Dec. 15. The policy is as follows: Pregnancies: "An expectant mother, who is a full time day student, will be asked to withdraw from school at a time determined in consultation with the school nurse, guidance counselor, and principal, or on the recommendation of the student's physician."

"Reentry of the mother to school, as a full-time day student, after the birth of a child shall be upon recommendation of her physician, and the consent of her husband, or parents or guardians, or the proper child welfare agency."

The District's Elementary School Principals, Allen Messer, Bethel-Newry; James Johnston, Greenwood-Woodstock, and Robert Hamor of Andover, spoke about programs, problems, etc., in their respective schools. Leonard Brooks, elementary guidance spoke on the duties of his position.

During a discussion of a very preliminary version of the 1970-71 budget, Roger Spugnardi, administrative assistant, requested that administrators and staff rework the budget. It was asked that a recommended budget be prepared to submit to the directors on Monday, Jan. 12.

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres.
The old year has slipped into silence. We have closed its door and bidden it goodbye.

Out of the fury of our snow storm there was born a world of white.

I look from my window or go out beneath the stars. There is much to see. Above, towers the sky while below there hovers a peaceful calm. Winter walks upon our landscape with crystal slippers upon her feet. She is encrusted in diamonds and snowy plumes in her hair.

Each evergreen is in its season's dress; the pine with branches meekly bowed, impressive with their grace and dignity, stately and regal, queens of the forest as they tower above all.

The spruce an ornamental tree with its lovely symmetrical dark green shape of whorls and pendulous branches.

The tamarack, a conifer which sheds its needles is double faced. One is graceful and friendly. The other somber and forbidding. It is beautiful in spring when its yellow flowers are succeeded by its delicate lace-like needles and in fall when its leaves turn yellow just before they shed. It can be enchanting against the sun for its light green needles are thin through which one can easily see. On the other hand it will often look melancholy in winter; its needles gone, its rusty bark having a scorched appearance and the blackish cones of former years still clinging.

Whatever the evergreen it is enduring and unvariable and steadfast. It's pleasant to see them rise against the surrounding hills amidst their blanket of ermine white. They stand firm, the lowest bush to the tallest pine in the valley, as day moves into that delicate realm of sunset, then evening. It is a heart-rejoicing festival to see the sunset colors and the delicately glowing stars. They lure the eyes to the endless immensity of the skies.

I hear the howl of the ice, blood chilling, complaining; starting with a vague noise, then faulting from shore to shore. It gains momentum and volume, then passes with a boom, fading as it retreats; waning and, lost.

There is the crack of the undergrowth or the fall of a pine cone; the passing of a leaf. These and many other sounds engulf the softness when walking beneath the stars.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Chase, West Paris, visited Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt and family Saturday evening.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Clyde

Morgan had as visitors, Lettie Brooks, Louie Coffin, and Lyndell Farr of West Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mills, Shapleigh, were callers Friday evening, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett attended a new years party at Warren Emery's, West Paris.

Mrs. Joyce Ham, Toni and Robert, Farmington, were visitors at her sister's Mrs. Katherine Hakala, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett went snowmobiling at Ray Stone's, in Sumner on Sunday and also enjoyed a "cook-out."

Mr. and Mrs. James Coffin and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pierce, West Paris, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett and watched the Tournament of Roses on New Years Day.

WOODSTOCK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS—Christmas Program

A Christmas program was presented in the Woodstock Gym on Friday, Dec. 19, by the children in Grades 1 through 6.

It was given under the direction of the room teachers and Mrs. Edith Eypert, District elementary music supervisor.
Parents and friends were invited and there was a fine attendance.
The program was as follows:
Songs, Grades 1 and 2: "Up On The Mountain," "Jingle Bells," "Jolly Old St. Nicholas."
Rhythm Band numbers also by boys of Grades 1 and 2.
Grade 3: Depicting Christmas Around the World—"Deck The Halls". Countries represented: Sweden—"Christmas"; France—"First Noel"; Germany—"Silent Night"; Mexico—"Pinafo"; and also "Twelve Days of Christmas."

Grade 5: Songs—"Haukka Hiss."

THANK YOU

Nativity to chairman, Al and Jane Barth, wish to say a very grateful, if somewhat belated, "Thank you" to all the townspeople who worked together to make this year's Nativity presentation the success that it was. We think that it is a great tribute to a community to be able to put forth the combined effort necessary to present this annual Christmas pageant. Many persons spend a great deal of time and energy behind the scenes as well as those persons actually seen in the program. We also wish to thank Mrs. Lapham of the Lewiston for loaning all the costume materials in preparation for storage.
We would gratefully accept any fabric or props that would add to the beauty of the performance. We especially need bright fabrics.
It was also suggested that a profit cruise be assembled so that in future years, a nice looking cruise could be readily and easily assembled and dismantled. Any organization or group of citizens interested in doing this may contact us.
Thanks again for all the cooperation and give us your dedication to a great community project.
Al and Jane Barth

SONGO POND

— Mrs. Ralph Kimball, Corra. —
The road leading from Route 5 in by the head of the pond is better plowed and better sanded than going of the main roads used daily by school bus drivers and mail men. Why?

George and Carol Beth Stebbins returned the first of the week to Houghton, N. Y., to resume their studies there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bancroft attended a birthday party in Norway Saturday evening honoring Clifford Hardy.

Mrs. Grace Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greig, Kim and Scott, were Sunday callers of the William Bancrofts.

Many ice skaters were on the pond Sunday, also ice fishermen and snowmobilers and one little car.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kimball took Sylvia back to Auburn Maine School of Commerce Sunday afternoon and later called on the William Martins in Mechanic Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Awad of Augusta were New Year's Eve guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Doyen. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Awad of Auburn were also recent callers there.

Mr. and Mrs. David Salway and children and Mrs. Herbert Adams visited their father, Ralph Kimball, New Year's Day, to help him celebrate his birthday and also the third birthday of his little grandson, Brandon Salway. Other callers have been Paul Polsson of Berlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frechette, her daughter, Mrs. Betty Larson and son, Stanley, and son, Mark Bean, of South Paris.

SHORN OF LOCKS—Dean Murphy son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy of Northwest Bethel, is shown above "before" and "after" his hair cut Wednesday evening.

HATHAWAY REPORTS

A recent editorial in a prominent New Jersey newspaper told the true story of an exaggerated woman who saved all her junk mail for a year, just to see how much she received. It weighed in at 33 pounds!

"The only surprise," exclaims the editorial, is "how easily she appears to have come off. Thirty-three pounds is less than two ounces a day, a calculation which suggests that the lady—is on fewer mailing lists than many of her fellow Americans seem to be."

"In any event," the story continues, "her experience dramatizes a principle reason behind the postal deficit. If only half the households in the United States get 33 pounds of unsolicited mail a year, that's half a million tons. And, since the senders still aren't expected to pay their own way, their targets, the taxpayers, pick up the tab for about 125,000 of these tons."

It is encouraging to note that proposed legislation is now pending in the Congress which is designed to take several potentially effective steps to eliminate the growing sense of citizen powerlessness evidenced by the New Jersey woman in stopping.

"What Child Is This?"
Grade 5: Songs—"This Woodrow Night", "Foom, Foom, Foom".
All Grades: Christmas Carols.

On Tuesday, Dec. 23, the Go Ahead PTA presented a very fine program for the children at the Woodstock School.

At the close of this entertainment the PTA members sponsored Christmas parties in the various home rooms, all enjoying the exchange of gifts, their Christmas trees and the refreshments.

School closed that day for the vacation period and resumed this week on Monday, Jan. 5.

Dean said he wanted to see what people's reaction would be and said possibly his hair would be auctioned off to benefit the junior class treasury at Telstar Regional High School.

plung mail regarded as offensive from appearing in the family mail box.

The provisions of the measure call for the following four basic steps: First, register mailing-list brokers with the Postmaster General in Washington. Second, provide means for the individual to avoid receiving any unsolicited mass mailing or to receive only those which relate to charitable non-profitable purposes. Third, require every piece of unsolicited mail to contain identifying information clearly specifying where the sender obtained the name of the recipient. And fourth, provide an enforceable provision stipulating that the individual may direct his name to be removed from that particular list.

In this way individuals can decide for themselves whether they wish to receive unsolicited mail. And they will be afforded the opportunity of taking personal action to see that it ends, if they so choose.

The primary thrust of this legislation is to help stop what is so often wasteful, what is occasionally obscene and yet continues the many valuable services which direct mailing provides to Americans.

I think it is fast becoming recognized by many in the Congress that most citizens regard junk mail as an invasion of personal privacy. And though the legislation pending action by the House of Representatives will not provide the complete answer to this problem, it could provide a needed first step toward an end to the continuing debate over an effective way to control unwanted mail and toward a clear recognition of the primacy of personal privacy.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU

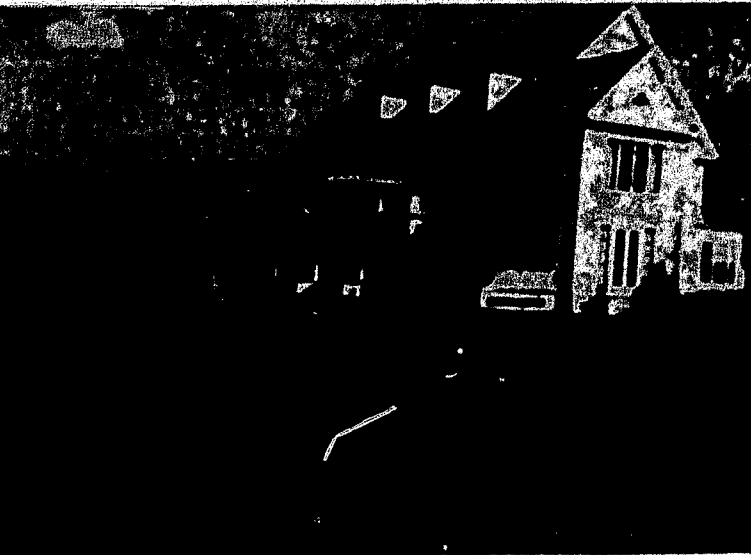

Rev. Parker
Bethel Church of the Nazarene

20 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

A Sabbath well spent,
Brings a week of content,
And health for the fall of the morrow.
But a Sabbath profaned,
Whate'er may be gained,
Is a certain forerunner of sorrow.

Ex. 20: 8-10: "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: But the Seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God."

Letters to the Editor

January 3, 1970

The Bethel Citizen:

On behalf of my mother, Christine C. McCoy, present owner of the Chapman Homestead, my wife, Geneva J. McCoy, myself and all members of the Chapman family: I want to extend to all the kind friends and neighbors, who worked so hard at the time of the Christmas Day fire, our deep appreciation. We know that the Bethel Fire Dept. and many people, at personal risk and great physical effort saved those things that will mean much to us. We are most grateful, and we regret that so many had their Christmas Day celebration so greatly disturbed.

Settled in 1805, when Bethel and Gilead were still pioneer communities, the original owner, George Whitfield Chapman, built the house in 1815. In 1870 the larger two and one-half story part was added by his grandson; and in 1917 the house was remodeled, at which time the east and west wings were added. From 1805 to 1961 the Homestead was never out of the Chapman name. At the latter date it passed from Cecile F. Chapman to her sister, Christine C. McCoy.

During the one hundred fifty-four years of its existence the old house, like all houses, saw much of life and death. Within it walls there had been gaiety and laughter as well as sorrow and sadness. Through the extremes of wind and weather it stood, a shelter to its occupants, through all the years that saw our Country grow from a small, weak

STATE POMOLOGICAL SOCIETY TO MEET AT LEWISTON NEXT WEDNESDAY

The president of the Maine State Pomological Society has announced that the annual meeting of the Society will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 8, at the Lewiston Armory, in Lewiston, during the 29th Annual Agricultural Trades Show. Arch D. Leavitt of Turner stated that the day-long session will start at 9:30 a. m. with the business meeting and will be climaxed at 3:30 p. m. with the selection and the crowning of the 1970 Apple Queen.

The program includes: "Mechanical Pruning of Apple Trees", the subject of an illustrated presentation by Roger Forrence, an orchardist from Peru, New York, and Frank J. McNicholas, Cooperative Extension Agent of Plattsburg, N. Y.; Dr. Warren C. Siles, University of Maine, discussing the question of "Pre-harvest Drop Control with Alar, NAA, and 2,4,5-T"; Roger Ennis of the Farm Bureau, talking on "Farm Insurance"; "Blossom-end Rot—Causes and Controls" being presented by Dr. Irving Rich, University of New Hampshire, and Dr.

Forrest Stowell will be speaking in the morning worship service at the Buckfield Baptist Church on Sunday, Jan. 11.

Mr. Stowell, a director of the Christian Civic League, will discuss local and state issues of concern to the church community and why church people should become involved.

The Christian Civic League has long been a voice of concerned citizens in Maine, speaking out on the moral issues of the day. Mr. Stowell's message promises to be provocative and pungent, with comments on current issues!

Merle T. Hillborn, University of Maine, Orono; and "1970 Apple Berry Schedule Changes—Herbicide Recommendations" being given by Dr. Herbert E. Wave of the University of Maine.

There is no admission charge to the 1970 Agricultural Trades Show. The public is invited to attend any of these meeting speeches and to participate in the discussion periods.

One of the things the ecumenical movement did was place great emphasis on the idea that every Christian should be a minister. The essential factors of the ministry are the same—whether you have a theological degree, become ordained and get your union card as a clergyman, or do it the other way, as a layman. The church should train people in the ministry, not the ordained ministry, but the ministry of what it means to be a Christian.

TAXPAYERS ASK I.R.S.

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the District Director of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) I'm a full-time college student and think I will get a tax refund. If I don't have to count a $750 scholarship as income, is it income?

A) Scholarships are generally not taxable and do not have to be reported for tax purposes. Since there are many different types of scholarships, you will want to check with the organization that gave you the scholarship to see if they have information on its tax status.

Q) Why did IRS drop the short form 1040A?

A) One important reason was to make it easier for taxpayers to claim all the credits, deductions and exclusions they were entitled to under the tax laws. In recent years more and more taxpayers have found it to their advantage to itemize deductions as their income increased.

The new Form 1040 is one basic page and actually calls for just about the same information that had to be entered on the front and back of the old card form. Over 30 million returns will need just the one-page Form 1040 to be complete, while another 22 million will have to attach only one additional schedule.

Copies of the schedules taxpayers will most likely need were included in the tax package mailed to some 75 million taxpayers.

Q) I got married in December. Can my wife and I file a joint return for 1967?

A) Yes, if you are married on the last day of your tax year, you can file a joint return. Your wife then cannot be claimed as a dependent on the return of another taxpayer.

Q) Does the new tax form make any difference in the way a farmer handles his credit for gas used on the farm?

A) No, the gas tax credit should be claimed as it has in the past by attaching Form 4136. The amount of credit claimed should be entered on line 21 of Form 1040.

Q) What is the surcharge rate for 1967 and how do you figure it?

A) The income tax surcharge is 10 percent for 1967. Tax surcharges are included in the tax packages and can be found on page T-1. These tables show the amount of surcharge based on the amount of tax liability and your filing status.

Remember that Schedule T, the tax computation schedule, will be just a worksheet for most taxpayers and need not be sent in with Form

MINOT NORTH DROWNS

AT NORTH NORWAY

Bertram L. Noble, 31, of Minot, was drowned Saturday evening, Jan. 3, 1970, in North Pond Bog, North Norway. He was crossing the bog with a snowmobile when it went through the ice into about six feet of water.

A party of five had been on a snowmobile trip in the area. Others besides the victim were identified as Armand Norton, South Paris; John Marshall, Keith Upton and Kurt Palmer, of Norway, who started a search for Mr. Noble after observing his truck was still parked several hours after they last saw him.

Scuba divers Richard Nelson of South Paris, and Sidney Gordon of Norway, located the body early Sunday morning.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon Jan. 5 from the J. W. Raymond and Son funeral home, Norway. Burial will be in the Pine Grove Cemetery, Poland.

1040. Only if the taxpayer claims a special credit such as retirement income, investment, or foreign tax, or has to pay self-employment tax, should schedule T be sent in with the return.

Q) I rent out some land to a farmer nearby. Do I include the rents I receive as farm or rental income?

A) Enter the rents you receive from your land on Schedule E, as rental income, and attach it to your Form 1040 when you file.

Unless there is material participation in the business of farming, the rents you receive are not considered farm income.

Q) Are there any tax benefits for those 65 and over? I'll be able to file that way this year.

A) Yes, there are several benefits for those 65 years of age and over. For example, there is an extra $200 exemption for age, and special provisions covering the sale of a personal residence.

These are explained in Publication 554, Tax Benefits for Older Americans. Send a post card to your District Director for a free copy.

FARMERS HOME ADMIN.

ASSESSING STORM DAMAGE

Local offices of the Farmers Home Administration throughout the New England area are now compiling storm damage estimates for every county in the six state area.

Oxford County Supervisor Elwyn R. Morrow announced that this rural credit agency, that annually lends about $60 million to farmers and rural homeowners in New England, had received some inquiries on the types of assistance that might be available in a disaster situation.

Farmers Home Administration authorities provide for emergency and disaster type loans in the event of any natural disaster causing substantial production losses or damage to real property in rural areas. These loans are used for emergency purposes and to restore real property to a usable condition and bear interest at the rate of 3 percent over a period of years, from one to thirty-three years.

Any farmers or rural residents in Oxford County in a community under 5500 population desiring further information should contact the local Farmers Home Administration office located in the Masonic Block in South Paris, Maine.

The annual Christmas bird count was taken Dec. 30 by Mrs. Jane Van, Mrs. Celia Gorman, Mrs. Edith Rowe, Mrs. Eva Perry, Mrs. R.R. Davis and Cathy Davis. They found 34 species and 159 birds.

152nd EDITION OF "MAINE FARMER'S ALMANAC" NOW ON SALE

The 152nd edition of "The Maine Farmer's Almanac" went on sale Thursday, Jan. 8. First published in 1818, "The Almanac" is two years older than the state of Maine.

This year's edition recalls the year 1820 as Maine celebrates its sesquicentennial. The calendars of 1820 as they appeared in "The Maine Farmer's Almanac," along with the amendments which were in that early issue, are reproduced. The Editor, Nathan C. Fuller, working with Journal Publications of Camden, Maine states, "We have tried to preserve the best of the old format while providing contemporary information."

By Act of the Maine Legislature "The Almanac" has long been recognized as the official source of time for establishing the sunrise and sunset hours. It has long been used by coastal and inland wardens as well as by the courts.

Moses Springer, Jr. published the first "Maine Farmer's Almanac" in Hallowell in 1818. In 1820 when Maine became a state his name and that of Daniel Robinson appeared on the cover. Shortly thereafter, only Robinson's name appeared.

Since then eight editors have continued "The Almanac's" traditions. Charles E. Nash & Sons, Augusta, were the Publishers until it left for New Hampshire and the home of the old "Farmer's Almanac" in Dublin, New Hampshire, two years ago.

With its return to Maine, the publication has moved to Camden where Journal Publications becomes the Publisher, Nathan C. Fuller its Editor.

NEW BOOKS AT THE BETHEL LIBRARY

"Man on the Mountain", by Gladys Hasty Carroll. The time of this novel is the twenty-first century; the drama is that of a society in which racial and economic distinctions have ceased to matter and citizens are strictly segregated according to age.

"The Immortals of the Mountain", by C. Virgil Cheoridin. Within a day of his installation as the Judge in Agapin, Coma Daman is faced with the fact of murder: brutal, cold blooded and seemingly without motive.

"The Money Game", by Adam Smith - a best seller, and a gift.

Juniors

"Ginnie and the Mystery Cat", by Catherine Worley. When Ginny Fellows heard that her parents were planning a tour of Europe, she begged to go along - and did with many mysterious things happening!

CLIP N' SAVE

2 YEAR TRACK WARRANTY

A two year warranty against track separation applies to all 1970 single cylinder MOTO-SKI models.
Standard warranty applies to 438, 500 and 634 cc models.

"Story of Moto-Ski's Exclusive Track"

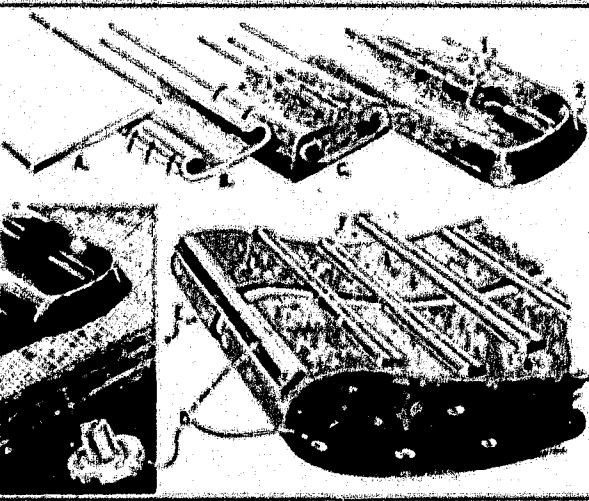

Every MOTO-SKI built features our exclusive and unique Rubberized Steel Cleated Track.

What's so special about this track? Take the cleat itself. We start with a slab of flat steel (A). First, we put a very exacting curl to the metal's edge (B); then, each cleat is carefully hand-dipped in molten rubber and molded. Note how the curled edge allows the steel to become completely encased (C). Final shaping of each cleat gives this track its prime characteristics: (1) the traction rib for hard-packed or crusty snow (2) the beveled edge for superior performance in deep, soft snow.

Damage to ordinary, molded tracks, without cleats, requires total track replacement (at about a hundred bucks!).

On the MOTO-SKI track, individually mounted cleats can be quickly and inexpensively replaced (F). Each is secured with a half dozen, tubular steel rivets (D), at intervals of about every three inches. The 3-ply belt (E) is constructed of the highest quality rubber and nylon and is designed with a rough, textured outer surface (greater traction) and a smooth inner face's less friction. Its non-molded construction creates for greater flexibility at lowest temperatures, providing maximum maneuverability to all types of terrain. When you invest in a snowmobile, you have a right to expect that it will go where snowmobiles are supposed to go. With its exclusive track, MOTO-SKI meets this responsibility. The results: a superior performance on ice, crust, snow, deep snow and deep, deep snow.

The standard MOTO-SKI track width is 15". The big wide track measures 18" across.
